COMMUNITY OF FAITH CONFERENCE

For Churches with few or no children

An event to connect, resource and inspire churches in ministry with children and young people. This day will explore new and exciting ideas and will resource and inspire ministry in congregations that have few or no children and young people.

Dumfries: Saturday 12th March - St George's Church, 50 George St, Dumfries DG1 1EJ
10.30am-3.00pm (Registration opens at 10am)

This conference is for volunteers (Sunday School leaders, GB/BB officers, youth club leaders, holiday club volunteers, Messy Church volunteers, elders etc.), ministers and paid workers alike.

Keynote: Suzi Farrant will help us to explore why we work with children and young people and the many opportunities there are for churches with few or no children.

Workshops include:

Messy Church

Exploring spiritual styles: How might children and young people engage with God?

Opening the Bible: Going beyond Noah's Ark

Prayer Spaces in Schools

Religious Observance: How can we approach schools and what should we do?

Building Community and relationships with children and young people

And more...

Cost - £10 (Lunch Included)
