*Only one you, no-one else like you
Only one me, no-one else like me
Only one God, who always is the Lord,
To set you free, to set me free!*

Sometimes I'm told I look just like my mum - others will say that I'm more my father's son, Mostly I feel I'm different and distinct,
no-one else to whom I feel I look as if I'm linked!

Sometimes I wish I wasn't who I am - too often getting myself in a jam.
Making mistakes and causing others pain - wishing I could rub thing out and start all over again!

*So glad you're you, no-one else like you
I'm glad I'm me, no-one else like me
Thank the one God, by praising the one Lord
Who sets you free, who sets all free!*

Only one you...

Sometimes I envy things that others do,
skills and abilities that let them each pursue.
Pastimes and sports that just don't work for me,
failing to remember all MY gifts that others see!

Only one you...
