

We stand here before you

We stand here before you, our faith to proclaim
Raising our song as we worship your name,
To you, whose we are and to you, whom we serve,
Giving thanks for your presence, your grace and your love.

We join here before you in fellowship's bond,
Sharing our lives in this day and beyond.
Your hands are there to guide us, your grace to assure,
Your presence among us, so awesome and pure.

We go from this place to a world that is yours,
Sure in the faith that Christ Jesus secures.
Humbly we go in the knowledge that you
Will bless and protect us in all that we do.

We stand here before you, our faith to proclaim
Raising our song as we worship your name,
To you, whose we are and to you, whom we serve,
Giving thanks for your presence, your grace and your love.

© Iain Whyte

Tune: Slane